

CHECKLIST AND PROCEDURES FOR BOOKS UPLIFT GUEST POSTS

___ Your post is no longer than 800 words on a topic related to BOOKS. This may include your experience as an author, expertise, advice to authors, a short story, or anything that can be tied back to BOOKS!

___ Your post targets the Books Uplift audience—readers, publishers, writers, authors, agents, and publicists.

___ Your post is uplifting and fun or teaches and inspires. This isn't the place for negativity.

___ Your post does not include backlinks.

___ Your post is original, not AI-generated—I will check!

___ Your post is original to Books Uplift and not posted on any other site or medium.

___ Your post DOES NOT pitch your product or services. If you want to emphasize your product or service (as an affiliate), I will ask that you contribute to charity in lieu of paying me. Explore this Affiliate Guest Post Example: <https://loom.ly/MFxGd0c/> then contact me to discuss.

___ You've included in your email your social media links for tagging when it goes live—1-3 months.

___ You've included a high-res horizontal-oriented picture to accompany your post with photo credits.

___ You've included a short bio to accompany your guest post that's no longer than 100 words.

___ You understand/agree there is no compensation for any posts, including guest posts on Books Uplift.

___ You understand/agree the final version may be altered from your submission after editing.

___ You understand/agree that you will be included in my newsletter unless specifically requested otherwise.

___ You understand/agree that content from this post may be repurposed in various other articles.

___ You understand/agree IF your post does NOT meet these specifications, it will not be posted on the site.

___ Please send content as a Word Document to Kim@KBMWriting.com with the subject heading: "Books Uplift Guest Post."
